regional social development council

You are invited to become a member of INNER SYDNEY VOICE

Inner Sydney Voice is a not-for-profit organisation working across the City of Sydney, Leichhardt, Botany, Randwick, Waverly and Woollahra Local Government Areas to provide information, advocacy and community development to local communities and community agencies. Services also include Home and Community Care (HACC) for HACC funded services and service users & Central Sydney North Tenant Participation Resource Service (TPRS) for social housing tenants.

Annual membership offers you or your organisation, free training, information via brochures, e-newsletters, support and advocacy plus four issues of Sydney Inner Voice each year. This publication is funded by Family and Community Services and by members and subscribers.

OBJECTS OF THE ASSOCIATION

- (A) To be a regional advocacy, information and community development agency operating to assist persons in need of relief from poverty, sickness, suffering, distress, misfortune, disability or helplessness (“persons in need”).
- (B) To support groups and people who are socially disadvantaged and persons in need to become engaged in their communities and develop greater control over their lives.
- (C) To resource and support groups and organisations that provide direct assistance to persons in need of relief from poverty, sickness, suffering, distress, misfortune, disability or helplessness.
- (D) To contribute to a creation of a sustainable and liveable community and urban environment for the people of the inner Sydney region, in particular people in need.
- (E) To be an independent voice on issues impacting on communities and the environment to the region.
- (F) To apply and promote the values of social justice.
- (G) To build communities’ capacities to respond to issues and address local concerns.
- (H) To promote the provision of a cooperative network of community services and infrastructure that responds to the needs of the region’s people, in particular persons in need.
- (I) To resource community activity consistent with these objects through providing regional information and advocacy.
- (J) To work with other agencies and groups to build partnerships which advance these projects.
